INDEX TO VOLUME VI.

1846.

ECCLESIASTICAL AFFAIRS.

ORIGINAL ARTICLES.

Address to the readers, 1.
The self-appointed peace-maker, 3.
A new dress for the new year, 17.
The shortest way round, 47.
Light and love, 61.
Congregational centralization, 77.
The old enemy again, 125.
The Charitable Trusts Bill, 141, 237.
Who's in fault? 173.
Gathercole v. the Nonconformist, 189.
Pranks of the privileged, 205.
Fathering our sins upon God, 221.
Christianity be-wronged, 237.
The bow drawn at a venture, 253.
Be wide awake, 285.
The defeat of the Charitable Trusts Bill, 349.
Calmness and irritability, 349.
The Church in danger—really, 365.
Vestigia episcopalia, 365.
Will for law, 397.
Silent ecclesiastical encroachments, 413.
Grateful acknowledgments, 429.
A clear stage, 445.
Thor and the giant, 461.
The press and the clergy, 478.
A groat contributed—a shilling taken in change, 493.
Dissent and the freedom of the press, 493.
More mitres, 509.
Corroborating likelihoods, 525.
Credible or incredible, 541.
Pockets and principles, 557.
State scarlatina, 557.
The grand imposture, 573.
State impiety, 589.
The Evangelical Alliance, 605.
Stop and look, 622.
The Bible Society and the Bible monopoly, 638.
Church-rate law, 663.
Beginning to tell, 669.
Sense and schism, 701.
Anti-state-church movements, 749.
American religious organizations, 749.
Tahiti, 765.
Illustrations of state-churchism, 797.
Signs of the coming change, 829.

NONCONFORMIST PORTRAIT GALLERY:—

1. Bunyan, 1.
2. Luther, 33.
3. De Foe, 77.
4. Oliver Cromwell, 109.
5. Edward Irving, 141.
6. George Fox, 189.
7. George Whitfield, 253.
8. Sir Thomas More, 317.
9. John Howard, 397.
10. John Milton, 461.
11. John Knox, 509.
12. Thomas Shillitoe, 573.
13. Elizabeth Fry, 637.
14. John Forster, 701.
15. Conclusion, 749.

THE CHURCHMAN'S MIRROR:—

1. Purposes and proposals, 17.
2. A plea for a patient hearing, 47.
3. A test for the trial of future argument, 94.
4. National professions, 125.
5. The Christian magistrate, 157.
6. Another glance at the Christian magistrate, 205.
7. The changeling, 286.
8. The paternity of government, 381.
9. Corporate churches, creeds, and confessions, 413.

WORKINGS OF WILLINGHOOD:—

1. Proposals submitted, 653.
2. The principle seen in its elements, 669.
3. By what methods it is trained, 685.
4. The listener, 717.
5. Spiritual Platonism, 733.
6. Love me, love my dog, 765.
7. The braced birds, 781.
8. Sectarianism, 797.
9. Creeds, 813.
10. The niggard and his reward, 829.
11. Satisfaction in duty, 845.
12. Geniality, kindliness, fidelity, 861.

ANTI-STATE-CHURCH MOVEMENT.

PUBLIC MEETINGS.—Thame, 34; Birmingham, 46; Coventry, 46; Eastern Institution, 78; Camberwell, 126; Bristol, 142: Southampton, 238; Annual meeting at London Tavern, 382; Kingsland, 446; London Tavern, 750; Manchester, 765. Deputation to Scotland—Berwick, Portobello, 835; Edinburgh, 845; Glasgow, 847, 851; Paisley, 861; Kilmarnock, 862; Edinburgh Voluntary Association, 158, 654. Annual Meeting of Council at Leicester, 312.

LECTURES. — Billericay, 190; Coggeshall, 223; Braintree, 227; Colchester, 254; Tredegar, 296; Walthamstow, 451; Leighton, 494; Stony Stratford, 494; High Wycombe, 510; Aylesbury, 526; Southampton, 591; Ipswich, 638; Bilderstone, 653; Harwich, 653; Sudbury, 670; Chatteris, 686; Norwood, 803; Tower Hamlets, 835; Devonshire-square chapel, 851, 862.

MISCELLANEOUS.—Annual Report, 343; the John Bull, 601; discussion meetings, 803, 819, 835.

GENERAL NEWS.

CHURCH-RATES.—Pontypool, 2, 47; the Braintree Case, 34; Chepstow, 47; Stepney, 126, 222, 835; Witham, 174; Kimbolton, 208; Leicester, 208, 223; Harpenden, 239; St. Austell, 239; Bristol, 414; Taunton, 463; Chatteris, 510; Deptford, 510; Remerton, 622; Kettering, 622; Topsham, 655; Ashford, 670; Hendon, 734, 782; Monkwearmouth, 734; Bishopsgate, 847; Worcester, 851; Maidstone, 862; Norwich, 863.

THE EVANGELICAL ALLIANCE.—Sir C. E. Smith and Dr. Campbell, 17, 33; Meetings, 19, 143; Dr. Campbell and the Alliance, 522; Archbishop Whately, 61; Free Church, 79; Birmingham Conference, 207; Society of Friends, 208, 222; Dublin, 254; Bristol, 541; Conference at Freemasons'-hall, 574, 589; Exeter Hall, 579; Sunderland, 720; Evangelical Alliance and Slavery, 606; Dr. Davidson, 654; Liverpool, 654; Norwich, 654; Dr. Chalmers, 704; Dr. Reed, 718; Conference at Manchester, 753; Jamaica, 830.

VARIOUS.—The secession in the Canton de Vaud, 34, 93, 174; Dr. Pusey at Oxford, 61, 813; case of Mr. Shore, 61, 297, 429, 576, 638; ecclesiastical conference at Berlin, 94, 430; Sir C. E. Smith and the Anti-state-church question, 94; picture of a perpetual curate, 109; tithe on fish, 126, 143; Free Church commission, 143, 576, 799; general assembly, 407; the German Catholics, 158, 558; clerical intolerance at Ryde, 158, 174; Holborn tithe case, 174, 766, 798; the poor man's church, 207; secessions from the church, 239; agitation against Charitable Trusts Bill, 206, 255, 319; first lecture on the Westminster divines, 315; the Congregational Union, 317, 349, 702; the Congregational Union of Ireland, 457; United Secession Synod, 318, 380, 366; Scotch Presbyterian Assemblies, 366; the Elstead church-rate case, 384, 462, 781; the Wakefield ditto, 413; deputies of the three denominations, 430; the bishopric of Exeter, 430; Edinburgh annuity-tax, 445; the Bishop of Exeter v. Mr. Head, 446; Presbyterian church of Ireland, 477; an Oxford clergyman, 494; Wesleyan conference, 525, 558: union of United Secession and Relief Church, 526; endowment of Irish Catholic clergy—opinions of the press, 542; ecclesiastical courts, 541; Czerski, the German Reformer, 591, 875; Presbyterian college of Ulster, 576, 592; M'Neile's sermon on Prince Albert, 576; distribution of patronage by cabinet ministers, 606; church and state in Jamaica, 606; bishopric of Manchester, 639; sees of St. Asaph and Bangor, 655, 670; persecution in Holland, 655; Morning Herald and Dissenters, 655; Earl Ripon and his patronage, 670; refusals of Christian burial, 670, 781; Bishop of London's charge, 703; Lady Hewley's charity, 718; Dr. Thomson and Bible circulation, 766, 782, 799; dissent and crime, 766; hardship and absurdity of oaths, 766; church-discipline, 782; contention for the primacy, 782; an evangelical miracle, 781; church-patronage at Manchester, 798; lay-patronage, 814; Robert Hall on State-churches, 814; religious equality in Hull, 830; testimonial to Dr. Thomson, 854; religious intolerance in Ireland, 863; tithe defaulter in prison, 863.

CORRESPONDENCE.

The Evangelical Alliance, 35, 79, 95, 110, 137, 152, 160, 240, 600.
Congregational Centralization, 79, 110.
A sustentation fund, 110.
Persecution of the Jews, 183.
Famine in Ireland, 183.
The late Mr. Guyer, 183.
Wales and the Nonconformist, 183.
Possibility of curing consumption, 183.
The peace question and ministers, 184.
The Congregational School, 201, 234.
Novel ecclesiastical exaction, 201.
Beauties of Gathercole, 232.
The quadrature of the circle, 321.
Parliamentary grants, 321.
Colonel Thompson to George Wilson, 357.
The Nonconformist and the Jews, 376.
Journalism in France, 376, 392, 399, 423.
How to turn church-rate seizures to account, 377.
Dissent in Worthing, 399.
Congregational Hymn-book, 403.
Elstead church-rate case, 423.
Suggestions for promoting the Anti-state-church movement, 447, 504.
Dissenters and vestry meetings, 463, 511.
Address to Sir R. Peel, 504.
Milton's prose works, 504.
Pryce v. Belcher, 504.
Education and the Tractarians, 511.
Church-rates and tracts for the million, 527.
Abstinence by compulsion, 559, 600.
English Regium Donum, 617.
Education and dissent in Wales, 655.
Evangelical Alliance and American slavery, 680.
Dr. Price on the British Anti-state-church Association, 749.
Church-rates at Trowbridge, 791.
First and second reformation, 800.
Oaths, 801.
Imposition of hands, 814.
Tithes in Northampton, 831.
Mr. S. Crawford on Ireland, 837.
Baptist Irish Society, 864.
Tahiti, 864.

PARLIAMENTARY DEBATES.

Queen's speech and the address, 47; railway business, 49, 80, 176, 211, 216, 262; the free trade scheme, 50, 51, 63, 80, 83, 95, 99, 111, 115, 127, 178, 179, 191, 294, 321, 352, 369, 371, 385, 416, 419, 439, 449; Roman Catholic disabilities, 80, 161, 447; foreign commercial relations, 81; Protectionist ebullitions, 98; burdens on land, 98; famine and disease in Ireland, 99, 161; the Anti-corn-law League, 113; Irish Coercion Bill, 113, 146, 193, 214, 246, 263, 400, 416, 438, 447; personalities, 128; the Irish Church, 129; thanks to the army in India, 129, 214; total repeal of the corn-laws, 131; charitable bequests, 144; the Andover Union, 144; the corn-laws and the new tariff, 145; education in Wales, 147; Frost, Williams, and Jones, 147; the new tariff, 161, 176, 353, 355, 399, 440, 551; Irish Fever Bill, 175; condition of Ireland, 177, 513, 592; the Government and the Protectionists, 192; Charitable Trusts Bill, 193, 320, 353, 495; Irish ejectments, 194, 265; relief for Ireland, 213, 299, 416, 561; Post-office abuses, 243, 578; Mr. O'Brien's case, 259, 294; county elections, 264; bribery, 264; Factories Bill, 294, 351, 367; Religious Opinions Relief Bill, 294, 320, 322, 353, 550; fees in courts of law, 321; case of Mr. Toulmin Smith, 351; Canada, 351; labour in lace factories, 367; the budget, 385; Poor-law Removal Bill, 399, 511, 527, 550; Sunday travelling, 400; Free Church building sites, 414; the charges against Sir R. Peel, 438; Church reform, 439; Churches Bill, 440; corn in bond, 440; Parliamentary reform, 447; resignation of Ministers, 449; Captain Warner's invention, 486; supply, 486, 496, 512, 528, 560; Ministerial intentions, 495; Hardinge and Gough annuities, 496; education, 496; sugar duties, 497, 511, 512, 515, 527, 547, 560, 581; sees of St. Asaph and Bangor, 497, 527; Death by Accident Compensation Bill, 511; Duke of Wellington's statue, 512; American mail steam-packets, 512; Art Unions, 527; flogging in the army, 527, 547, 550; enlistment in the army, 528; baths and washhouses, 528; tobacco duties, 531; Cracow, 547, 561; Small Debts Bill, 547, 577; Irish Arms Bill, 561; imperial duties in the colonies, 560; Sir David Pollock, 513, 577; Irish Constabulary Bill, 576; Railway Board, 576; Mexico and the United States; 578; poor-law commission, 579, 593; Haydock-lodge Lunatic Asylum, 593; the close of the session, 592.

POLITICAL ARTICLES.

Summary, 8, 24, 40, 52, 68, 84, 100, 116, 132, 148, 164, 180, 196, 212, 228, 244, 260, 292, 324, 356, 372, 388, 404, 420, 436, 452, 468, 484, 500, 516, 532, 548, 564, 580, 596, 612, 628, 644, 660, 676, 692, 708, 724, 740, 756, 772, 788, 804, 820, 836, 852, 868.
The coming contest, 8.
New Christmas Pantomimes, 8.
Our unrivalled constitution, 9.
The tongue of distress, 24.
How to point a gun, 24.
Soldiering for the millions, 25.
The happy family, 38.
A "shindy," 39.
Enrolment of the militia, 39.
The Premier's confession, 52.
The ballot—which ballot? 53.
Ichabod! 53.
The government free-trade measure, 68.
Progress of the capitulation, 69.
The democratic duke, 69.
The grand debate, 84.
Public reading of the parliamentary debates, 85.
Speech worse than silence, 101.
Maudlin sympathy, 101.
The two bonds of union—a discovery, 101.
The ground-swell, 116.
Bleeding and warm water, 117.
Is Mr. Bright to envy again? 117.
The division, 132.
Chaff for the militia, 133.
Subterraneous vibrations, 148.
Reconnoitrings, 149.
Wars and rumours of wars, 149.
The uplifted scourge, 164.
Hostility to war, 165.
Benefit of clergy, 180.
Economical blunders, 181.
Force and food, 196.
The colonies are coming, 197.
A great truth by accident, 197.
Gory glory, 212.
The French minister on free trade, 213.
Eastertide, 228.
The normal school at Brecon, 229.
Time to speak, 244.
The perils of royalty, 245.
Modest retirement, 260.
Gathercole v. Miall—the law of the case, 261.
County elections, 261.
"All's well that ends well," 292.
Death punishments, 293.
Pay, but not criticize, 293.
"My lords, consider well," 324.
The origin of Chartism discovered, 325.
The battle of the gauges, 325.
Peel and his measure, 356.
Appropriate finale of the Gathercole case, 357.
The reform of reforms, 372.
Short time by Act of Parliament, 373.
Social questions, 388.
The deferred contest, 389.
Newspaper enterprise, 389.
Christianity and slavery, 404.
Kill your next tiger yourselves, 405.
Food and physic, 420.
The bishops and the corn bill, 421.
What can the nation do? 421.
Church sites by legal compulsion, 436.
Test of sincerity, 437.
The vanquished victor, 452.
Settlement of the Oregon dispute, 453.
The man that played Punch, 453.
The Rev. M. A. Gathercole again, 453.
What will the Whigs do? 468.
Dissolution of the League, 469.
The song of the owls, 469.
The new era, 484.
Gathercole v. Miall, 485.
Sugar and slavery, 500.
The Edinburgh election, 501.
Political hydrophobia, 501.
The Whig plot, 516.
Look before you leap, 517.
The root of the evil, 532.
Reform in the army, 533.
Educational voluntaryism, 548.
The World's Temperance Convention, 549.
The Ulster hush-money, 549.
All is not gold that glitters, 564.
The proper sphere of government, 565.
Every man his own lawyer, 580.
Compulsory morality, 581.
The session of 1846, 596.
The challenge accepted, 597.
State education—unjust in principle, 612.
Immigration to the British colonies, 613.
State education—body without soul, 628.
Louis Philippe and his royal vassals, 628.
State education—the discipline of voluntaryism, 644.
The Anti-Slavery League and the Evangelical Alliance, 644.
State education—transfer of responsibility, 660.
The Spanish marriages, 661.
Thomas Clarkson, 661.
Unhappy Ireland, 676.
The Westminster Review on state education, 677.
The Evangelical Alliance and Slavery, 677.
The salt monopoly, 692.
Anti-Poor-Law movement, 693.
Rout of the Shams, 708.
The representative system—Berkeleyacem, 708.
It shines, but it burns, 724.
Spontaneous effort at social improvement, 735.
How to frighten away dearth, 740.
Waste lands and superabundant labour, 741.
A hand to the handy, 756.
The condition-of-Ireland question, 757.
Rev. H. Stowell and Protestant popery, 957.
The short-time movement, 772.
The People's College, Notts, 772.
England, the ally of foreign despotism, 773.
The squabbles of diplomacy, 788.
The religion of force, 789.
Reduction of the duty on tea, 789.
Present position of the education question, 804.
Death by destitution, 805.
Electoral snobbishness, 820.
The great social enigma, 821.
The darkest hour precedes the dawn, 836.
The food question, 836.
"The fretting leprosy," 852.
The Irish "Fireman-waterman," 853.
The year 1846, 868.
The agency of diplomatists, 869.
Justice before generosity, 869.
The corporation of the city of London, 869.

MISCELLANEOUS PAPERS.

Letters from the United States, 3, 199, 241, 358, 390, 418, 430, 454, 487, 529, 567, 623, 737.
The Quarterlies and the corn laws, 9.
Welsh Sketches, 20, 56, 88, 136, 159, 208, 327, 406, 559, 721, 817.
The reform of the Reform Bill, 36.
Religion in Germany, 47, 141, 174.
Religion in Canada and the United States, 354.
The new tariff, 64.
The Oregon question, 72.
Centralization in American churches, 93.
Address of Complete Suffrage Union, Birmingham, 117.
Letters from Jamaica, 118, 375, 462, 662.
Letters from Guiana, 118.
Nonconformity in Guiana, 158.
Slavery in America, 259, 284.

The Peace question in England and America, 167.
State of Switzerland, 199.
State of Italy, 242.
State of Prussia, 242.
State of Canada, 454.
Bible monopoly, 238.
The Welsh gentry and ecclesiastical coercion, 247.
The French Protestant establishment a fiction, 247.
The quadrature of the circle, 248, 359, 377.
Dissenters' Life and Fire Assurance Company, 386.
Elihu Burritt, 407.
Protest against the sugar duties, 502.
Mr. Bright's report on the game laws, 518, 586.
Committee's resolution on ditto, 563.
A few words on the potato disease, 598.
Fifty lashes without Court Martial, 657.
Dr. Cox, of America, on English abolitionists, 195.
Memoir of Colonel Thompson, 695.
Religious persecution v. liberty of conscience, 701.
Highland landlords, 722.
Religious liberality of Thomas Clarkson, 733.
Characteristics of the Age, 790, 807.
Memoir of H. Vincent, 806.
Irish Evangelical Society, 817, 870.
The Court of Aldermen and Common Council, 853.
Government of New Zealand, 867.

SELECTIONS FROM THE PRESS.

Spectator—Whig awaking of the Epimenides, 25; Oregon, 39; more sacrifices of old friends, 133; international arbitration, 197; the crisis in the railway world, 197; Charitable Trusts bill, 229; Palmerston in Paris, 245; peculiar burdens on land, 389; leagues—how to prevent them, 469; the free-trade triumph, 469; Eastern Counties railway, 517; our relations with France, 774.
Guernsey Star—The Quarterly Review, 39.
Examiner—Peel, Polk, Thiers, and Adams, 69; justice in England and Ireland, 133; the curfew bill, 165; social condition of Poland, 181; the corn bill and the royal assent, 326; Cabral's fall, 405; the great men of the Protectionists, 568; Denmark and Holstein, 595; tales of the hall, 725; Portugal, 726; a European Congress, 821.
Guiana Congregational Record—Progress of oppression, 86; failure of the immigration scheme, 473.
Economist—Legislative interference with labour, 101; best remedy for Ireland's distress, 629; social condition of Ireland, 642; the supply of food, 773; resources of America, 789.
New York Journal of Commerce—England and America, 149.
Punch—The schoolmaster in regimentals, 151.
Times—Our trade and commerce, 168; patronage in the State-church, 206; clerical mendicants, 221; the autocrat duke, 389; the peace question, 466; intrigues of the King of the French, 549; the Poor-law commission, 549; the Premier's position, 693; the law of entail, 722; the British constitution, 741.
Tait's Magazine—Our foreign department, 741.
Anti-slavery Reporter—Immigration, 706.
Manchester Times—Thanksgiving for Sikhs driven into the Sutlej, 245.
Eclectic Review—Charitable Trusts Bill, 265; the law of libel, 390; state education, 613.
Morning Chronicle—Ecclesiastical courts, 441.
Leeds Times—"Honour to whom honour," 517.
Globe—Statistics of the late session, 392.
Jerrold's Newspaper—Church gamekeepers, 654; the law of primogeniture, 658; how Dives bribes Lazarus, 709; the idle and evil-disposed aristocracy, 821.
Daily News—Our meddling policy, 677.

DOMESTIC NEWS.

ELECTIONS, &c.—Hertfordshire, 22; Newark, 22, 40, 71; Buckingham, 37, 103; West Riding of Yorkshire, 50, 86, 472, 498; Cork, 67; Medhurst, 71; Chichester, 83, 87; Leicester, 83, 99, 115, 151, 168; Selkirkshire, 87; South Notts, 87, 103, 113, 120, 136; East Suffolk, 87, 120; Westminster, 99, 103; Rutlandshire, 103; North Notts, 103, 120, 131, 136, 151; Dorsetshire, 120; East Gloucester, 120, 136; Bridport, 131, 136, 151; South Northampton, 136; Stafford, 147, 168; Mayo, 147, 151; Windsor, 151, 168; Bradford, 231; Falkirk, 297; Ipswich, 405; Plymouth, 467, 471, 479; Edinburgh, 472, 480, 483, 498; City of London, 478; Tower Hamlets, 481; Devonport, 482; Manchester, 482; Gloucester, 482; Taunton, 482; Worcester, 482; Nottingham, 482; Hertford, 482; Perth, 482; Halifax, 482; Roscommon, 482, 515; Leith, 482; Greenwich, 482; Chester, 482; Liskeard, 482; Dungarvan, 482; Tiverton, 482; South Stafford, 498; Lichfield, 498; Kirkcudbright, 499; South Lancashire, 499; St. Albans, 547; Derby, 595, 597, 614, 641; Registration news, 626; Manchester, 789, 791, 804, 822, 838, 853, 870.
THE EDUCATION QUESTION.—Dr. Hook's scheme, 566; education in Wales, 195, 612, 614, 630, 678; Dr. Vaughan's reply, 645; Scotch parochial system, 659; schoolmasters' salaries, 613; Normal school, Brecon, 466; American schools, 678, 694; education in Holland, 870; education in Buckinghamshire, 104; education in the manufacturing districts, 110; the National Society, 391, 659, 719; Welsh education conference, 487; Free Church scheme, 515; Mr. Baines's letters—533; alleged deficiency, 565; power of voluntary principle, 581; Government direction, 609; reply to Dr. Vaughan, 630; the Continental systems, 645, 662; the American schools, 678, 694; education in America, 702;—British and Foreign School Society, 790; Devon county conference, 849.
FREE-TRADE MOVEMENT.—The League £250,000 fund meetings, 5; Newcastle, 7; Carlisle, 26; Liverpool, 26; Norwich, 37; Leeds, 40; Manchester, 40; Covent-garden, 41; Bristol, 106; qualification movement, 26, 72; League fund, 54, 71; dissolution of the League, 470; testimonial to Mr. Cobden, 471.
ANTI-MILITIA MOVEMENT, 40, 54, 67, 86, 135; Birmingham, 54, 119; Newcastle, 66; Leeds, 66, 86; Bridgewater, 66; Edinburgh, 66; Rochdale, 67; Leicester, 167; Bradford, 86.
EARLY-CLOSING MOVEMENT, 79, 133, 182, 200, 291, 319, 328, 381, 675, 754, 800.
THE PEACE MOVEMENT, 165, 167, 280, 256; Petitions of London Society, 213, 473; Lectures, 739, 774, 787, 790; League of Brotherhood, 586, 672, 851; International Addresses, 182, 200, 247, 256, 259, 357, 472, 721, 742.
MEETINGS AGAINST CAPITAL PUNISHMENT.—Norwich, 257; Exeter Hall, 297; Eastern Institution, 504; Finsbury, 726, 776; Northampton, 776; Leicester, 776; Nottingham, 776; London Tavern, 822.
ANTI-SLAVERY MOVEMENT.—Evangelical Alliance, 191; Birmingham, 466; Irish Presbyterians, 526; Free Church, 259. Meetings at Edinburgh, 328 367, 398.—Anti-Slavery League, 546; Crown and Anchor, 568; Bristol, 609; Exeter Hall, 631; Edinburgh, 658, 720, 739; Sunderland, 658; Norwich, 673; Bristol, 689; Manchester, 691; Aylesbury, 710; Newcastle, 710; Glasgow, 710, 757; Liverpool, 720; Free-church Anti-slavery Society, 838.
MR. VINCENT'S LECTURES, Scotland, 11, 37, 103, 136; Alnwick, 160; Bradford, 199, 662; Dunstable, 258; Reading, 323; Huntingdon, 366; Northampton, 595; Sudbury, 595; Sheffield, 646; Lincolnshire, 695, 707, 723; Norfolk, 806; Huntingdon, 835; Newport Pagnell, 867.
THE GATHERCOLE CASE.—Trial at Cambridge, 163, 206; selections from the press, 174, 190, 286; full report of Cambridge trial, 223; Court of Exchequer, 255; full report, 286; Meeting at Kingsland, 287; London Tavern, 433; opinions of the press on the second action, 498, 533; Gathercole again, 821.
PROTECTIONIST DEMONSTRATIONS, 5, 26, 41, 67, 627; Bond-street Society, 26; the Protectionists and Peel's measure, 70, 85, 373; agricultural meetings, 677; the peasantry of Wiltshire, 22, 104.
DEATHS OF EMINENT MEN.—Dr. Matheson, 61; Rev. F. Burchell, 389; Dr. Heugh, 422; Lord Chief Justice Tindal, 467; Sir C. Wetherell, 563; Lord Metcalfe, 611; Sir John Williams, 643; Thomas Clarkson, 659, 661, 674; Baron de Bode, 679, 689.
COURT AND MINISTRY, 11; ministerial resignations, 71, 87, 104; birth of princess, 371, 373; Ibrahim Pasha in England, 402, 429, 437, 463, 498; ministerial crisis, 451; the change of ministry, 453; the new government, 469; the new ministry and their salaries, 514; the royal christening, 517; Prince Albert at Liverpool, 530; royal marine excursions, 579, 611; visit to Guernsey, 592; visit to Hertfordshire, 720; visit to Arundel, 803.
RAILWAY NEWS, 6, 26, 232, 770, 807; accidents, 23, 26, 243, 579, 639, 670, 787; Eastern Counties, 231, 503, 513, 529, 549, 655, 690, 696, 755; South Eastern, 366; Great Western, 643; legal decisions, 175, 232, 243, 455, 786; stations in London, 686; sub-marine railways, 686; London and Birmingham, 705; succession of accidents, 758.
MOVEMENT ON BEHALF OF TAHITI, 775, 785, 802, 817, 838, 870.
IRELAND.—Repeal Association, 67, 211, 403, 611; impending famine, 87, 147, 211; public works, 195; a priest's curse, 199; eviction of tenantry, 199, 209; an Irish informer, 209; food riots, 243; progress of distress, 265; differences between O'Connell and Young Ireland, 483; O'Connell on the change of Ministry, 451; the Repeal schism, 315, 627; secession of Young Ireland, 520, 531; second failure of the potato crop, 563; working of the Relief Act, 627, 646, 657; popular outrages, 641; deputation to Lord John Russell, 643; food riots at Youghal, &c., 657, 672; presentment sessions, 672, 675, 737; agrarian outrages, 672; spread of destitution, 687, 802, 833; reproductive labour, 687; presentment session extraordinary, 706; Government measures, 719, 769; scene at Conciliation-hall, 737; arming of the peasantry, 787, 816; expense of public works, 816; meeting of the secession, 816; non-cultivation of the soil, 833; death by famine, 835; sale of entailed estates, 849; outbreaks in Clonmel, 849; association of landlords, 865; emigration, 867; appalling distress, 867.
MISCELLANEOUS.—Peep at the "pinch of curry-powder" county, 6; Lord Morpeth on endowment of the Catholics, 10; colliery explosion, 35; Lord J. Russell in Glasgow, 36; public health, 71, 387, 553; Government and idolatry in India, 73; loss of an emigrant ship, 82; reception of Ministerial scheme, 85; trial of Captain Johnstone, 88; Burns's birthday at Jedburgh, 88; juvenile crime and destitution, 95; execution of Seery, 104; potato riots at Inverness, 105; the Ferrars case, 113; case of somnambulism, 113; the greatest man in England, 115; the gauge committee, 117, 407; loss of the Great Liverpool, 147, 175; Hutchinson family, 147; the Portsmouth duel, 147; refuge for discharged prisoners, 162; executions, 165, 178, 179, 211, 232; ragged schools, 181, 403, 518; assize intelligence, 231; Daguerreotype portraits, 245; Wilderspin testimonial, 251; refusal to take an oath, 295; return of an innocent convict, 359; collision on the Mersey, 371; Metropolitan Complete Suffrage Association, 375; a Whitsuntide adventure, 399; Lord Morpeth on Sunday-schools, 403; new asylum for infant orphans, 409, 424; hydropathic system, 422, 432; thunder-storms in the north, 430; Rowland Hill testimonial, 437; suicide of Haydon, 455; Free-trade rejoicings, 466; destructive storm, 473; Institution for the Protection of Young Females, 499; flogging at Hounslow, 503, 519, 835; soirée at Plymouth, 503; Dissenting trusts, 520; Bishop of Exeter and Western Times, 527; World's Temperance Convention, 531, 543, 578; hail storm in London, 534; Burritt in Worcester, 535; English cholera, 537; Bentinck demonstration, 537; Chartist Convention, 546; murder at Guildhall Coffee-house, 563, 579; Andover union committee, 566, 585; the Scott monument, 568; illustrations of game laws, 582, 624; abolition of military flogging, 582; Manchester public parks, 585; case of the Rajah of Sattara, 595, 679, 818, 867; baths and washhouses, 608, 646; Times' testimonial, 619; presentation to Col. Thompson, 611; charge of piracy against Lord Campbell, 614; the late Plymouth election expenses, 615; railway travelling on the Sabbath, 615; Small Debts Act, 623; murder at Chesterfield, 923; the Whittington Club, 623, 679, 736; novel religious community, 623; British association, 627, 629, 647; claimant of supernatural powers, 631; a female forger, 642; distress in Scotland, 647, 707; temperance in the Potteries, 655; the late Hon. Mr. Morrison, 657; loss of the Great Britain, 657, 675, 691, 701, 719, 867; removal of Wellington statue, 659, 679; election of Lord Mayor, 659, 675; refusal to take an oath, 673; the National Alliance, 678; Dagenham murder, 679; post-office embezzlement, 690; the Dorsetshire farmers, 690; elopement of Lady Rose Somerset, 694; Rev. James Caughey, 697; a new planet, 697; strange railway incident, 705; explosion at Newcastle, 711; narrow escape of the Duke of Wellington, 719; Manchester Athenæum, 726; Sunday trains, 734; the Berkeley quarrel, 736; deputation on opening the ports, 739; Berwick bank robbery, 743; Cabinet secrets, 743; new Mayor, 755; departure of Mr. Garrison, 759; National Anti-poor-law Provident and Benevolent Union, 759; robbery by a female, 769; Orphan Working School, 770; chapel burning at Nottingham, 771; the Ten Hours Bill and short time, 776; Heriot's Hospital, 783; explosion at Oldbury, 783, 787; fire at Gravesend, 785; the Sunday train question, 786, 800, 803, 814; dreadful gales, 787; earthquake in Scotland, 800; duty on tea, meeting at Liverpool, 807; starved to death, 807; Warner's "long range," 816; monastic institutions, 816; poisoning at Sudbury, 816; Ten Hours Bill agitation, 818; Smithfield club cattle show, 819, 833; deputations to Government, 822; illustrations of American slavery, 822.

FOREIGN NEWS.

The King of Prussia and his subjects, 21; the Oregon question, 21, 55, 102, 135, 150, 166, 227, 230, 322; the war on the river Plate, 64, 767; battle of Ferozeshuhur, 82, 118, 150; insurrection in Poland, 99, 131, 147, 150, 163, 166, 181, 198, 227; free-trade in France, 115; battle of Moodkee, 118; the conflict in New Zealand, 157, 195, 431, 552; battle of Loodianah, 179; suspension of the Spanish Constitution, 179; debates in French Chambers, 181, 198; Narvaez's new ministry, 181; battle of the Sutlej, and peace with the Sikhs, 195, 198, 209; expulsion of Narvaez from Spain, 227; the French in Tahiti, 230, 242, 374, 407, 430, 465, 583, 593, 608, 687; the British at Lahore, 240; attempts on the life of Louis Philippe, 241, 529; the Isturitz ministry in Spain, 241; insurrection in Portugal, 259, 419; notice on the Oregon question, 326; war between United States and Mexico, 390, 401, 418, 430, 465, 552, 655, 671, 704, 719, 867; downfall of Cabral ministry, 391, 401; escape of Prince Louis Napoleon, 391; the Caffre war, 391, 408, 454, 529, 583, 712, 719, 784, 801, 865; the pirates at Borneo, 391; the new Pope, 419, 455; conflagration at Newfoundland, 451; settlement of the Oregon dispute, 454; reforms of the new Pope, 487, 515, 593; United States new tariff, 567; papal amnesty, 567; riots at Cologne, 567; the Spanish marriages, 579; the cholera in Scinde, 583; Cobden at Paris, 583; trial of Henri, 593; earthquake at Leghorn, 583; betrothal of Queen Isabella and her sister, 607, 623, 639, 643, 675; scarcity in France, 607; the cholera in Scinde, 608; escape of the Count de Montemolin, 639; the Pope and Prince Joinville, 640; riot at Canton, 643; protests against Spanish marriages, 653, 658, 671; scarcity on the Continent, 671; disorders in Lahore, 671, 719; marriage of the Queen of Spain, 704; revolution at Geneva, 704, 723; outbreak of the natives in New Zealand, 705; the war in the Caucasus, 707; Great Western in a hurricane, 712; inundations in France, 719, 723, 734; gales in Newfoundland, 719; insurrection in Portugal, 723, 731, 739, 755, 716, 784, 811, 864; Mr. Cobden at Madrid, 723; taking of Monterey, 735, 758; hurricane at the Havanna, 758; French differences with England, 767; extinction of Polish independence, 767; important decision on slavery, 768; confiscation of Cracow, 784, 787, 801, 865; disturbances in Cashmere, 785, 803, 865; massacre of Nestorians, 801, 833; banquet to Mr. Cobden at Cadiz, 803; defeat of Portuguese insurgents, 819; distress in Belgium, 864; Cobden in Spain, 865; the President's message, 867.
MISCELLANY.—Marriage of Pasha of Egypt's daughter, 55; the Czar and the Polish nuns, 78, 94, 150, 167, 182, 258; railway accident in France, 151; "Priests, Women, and Families," 166; the Millerites, 167; peace movement in America, 167; King of Hanover on marriage, 182; expulsion of Baptist missionaries from Fernando Po, 231; persecution of Nestorians, 242, 622; persecution of Armenians, 261; the cholera in the East, 265, 326, 441, 735; eruption of Mount Hecla, 296; the Mormons, 402; trial of Lecomte, 402; death of the Pope, 402; French atrocities in Algiers, 466; American slavery, 608; religious bigotry at Madeira, 616; religious intolerance in Greece, 625; Free-trade movement in France, 640; disorders in Galicia, 640, 735; a Spanish bull-fight, 727.

MISCELLANEOUS.

FAMILY COMPANION AND GLEANINGS, 11, 26, 42, 105, 121, 154, 169, 184, 201, 233, 249, 266, 298, 328, 361, 377, 393, 410, 425, 442, 458, 474, 521, 534, 553, 570, 585, 601, 617, 633, 649, 664, 689, 697, 713, 729, 744, 761, 777, 792, 807, 824, 840, 855, 872; wait a little longer, 57; Cromwell's death-bed, 73; clear the way, 105; death and the hangman, 105; plea for our climate, 137; the electrical girl, 138; student's fancy, 138; Mademoiselle Julie, 16[illegible] the ubiquitous peer, 169; the horrors of war, 16[illegible] Lord G. Bentinck, 185; tribute to Mr. Knibb, 185; Indian corn food, 185, 233; the nebula hypothesis, 197; phonography, 227; amputation during sleep, 233; Lord Morpeth, 233; Curran's first speech, 233; the daily paper, 249; mesmeric surgery, 425; Hutchinson family, 474; a welcome to Elihu Burritt, 474; Indian cure for Asiatic cholera, 601; John Bright at home, 601; President Polk at home, 633; bathing in Normandy, 633; lady at the Græfenberg water-cure, 649; Cobden's early life, 649; the marriage ring, 649; what makes marriages unhappy, 649; the sun and his satellites, 665; Mr. Prentice, 665; the peerage, 665; geology of America, 675; Dombey and Son, 680; Donna Luisa's dowry, 681; the Caffres, 697; the new planet, 713; camphor on the teeth, 729 mesmerism, 729; woman's lot, 729; calomel, 777; secret correspondence, 777; romance of a bedstead, 777; reminiscences of the resuscitated, 777; William Knibb, 840; contributors to Punch, 840; the falls of Niagara, 840; Daguerreotype portraits, 872.
STATISTICS, &c.—Revenue table, 10, 209, 465, 689; religion in United States, 112; executions, 134; Free-trade divisions, 134, 195; Free-trade divisions in Lords, 392; special burdens on land, 149; legacy duties, 153; death punishments, 229; accidents on railways, 371, 579; colonial bishoprics, 414; church statistics, 462; the Bible, 494; railway acts, 549; sight-seeing, 579; the trade of the year, 583; public income and expenditure, 586; the harvest, corn markets, &c., 623; war, 629; Free Church of Scotland, 638; Church discipline, 670; the Catholic priesthood, 670; railway stockholders, 677; vital statistics, 686; voluntaryism in the church, 703; trade of the year, 711; the public health, 742; waste lands in Ireland, 743.

LITERATURE.

REVIEWS.

The Monthly Periodicals, 12, 89, 152, 217, 338, 409, 489, 616, 696, 760, 823.
The Pilgrim's Progress, 27.
Gilfillan's Gallery of Literary Portraits, 72.
Memoir of Wm. Williams of Wern 200.
Tradtiions of the Covenanters, 505.
The Spirit admitted to the Heavenly Home, 520.
Shakspeare's Dramatic Art, 569.
The Biliad, or How to Criticize, 569.
The Life of Jesus, 599.
Works and Memoir of Dr. Fletcher, 632.
Works of Andrew Fuller, 744.
Dr. Alexander's Switzerland, 838.
The Pre-Adamite Earth. By Dr. Harris, 871.

BRIEF NOTICES.

The Cottar's Sunday, by Peter Still, 28; Child's Commentator, 28; Tract Society's books, 73, 137, 248, 474, 809, 839; memoirs of J. Reid, M.A., of Bellary, 73; Conference Methodism, by R. Eckett, 121; Emmaus, by J. Waddington, 121; D'Aubigné's Reformation, 121, 424; Miss Martineau's Forest and Game laws, 121, 137; the Evangelical Alliance, 137; Manual of Natural Philosophy, 168; the Native Irish, 169; Cooper's Orations, 184; Fox's Lectures, 184; Curæ Romanæ, 184; a Guide from the Church of Rome, 248; Dr. Spring's Attraction of the Cross, 248; Parker's Discourse, 248; Bogue's European Library, 249, 727; Barnes's Notes, 249, 474; memoir of S. Dyer, 393; Moral Heroism, 393; the Scripture Doctrine of Future Punishment, 393; The Eternal, by R. Philip, 393; the Sick Chamber, 393; Dr. Massie's tour in Belgium, &c., 424; Thomas Gray and the Railway System, 424; Royal Gems from the Galleries of Europe, 424; the Christian in Palestine, 424; Heroines of Shakspeare, 424; Payne's Lectures on the Divine Sovereignty, 456; Dr. J. P. Smith on the Supremacy of the Scriptures, 456; the Jesuits, 457; the Aristocracy of England, 473; Apostolical Succession, by W. Palmer, 505; Manual of British Birds, 505; Monthly Prize Essays, 521; the Worship of Genius, 537; Christian Discrimination, 537; the Lord's Supper, by Dr. King, 570; Rowton's Debater, 585; Autobiography of the late Wm. Jones, M.A., 585; Wild Flowers, 585; Sir J. B. Williams's Letters on Puritanism and Nonconformity, 585; Partridge and Co.'s publications, 647, 839; Life of Thomas Wilson, 680; D'Aubigne's Discourses and Essays, 680; Dissertation on Christian Baptism, 680; Dr. Nicholl's Thoughts, 713; the Why and the Wherefore, 727; Health made Easy, 727; Truth and Evil, 728; Glimpses of the Wonderful, 809; Letters to E. B. Elliott, 855; Caughey's Letters, 855; Memoir of Colonel Hutchinson, 855; the German Reformation, 855; Lives of A. Henderson and Jas. Guthrie, 855.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

GENERAL.—20, 35, 62, 94, 144, 159, 175, 201, 208, 232, 239, 254, 347, 409, 441, 463, 521, 553, 570, 617, 632, 648, 664, 680, 713, 729, 791, 824, 855, 872.
PUBLIC MEETINGS.—Baptist Home Mission, 269; Baptist Irish Society, 272; Bible Translation Society, 276; Baptist Missionary Society, 278; Congregational Union of Scotland, 282; British Society for Jews, 283; Wesleyan Missionary Society, 301; Church Missionary Society, 302; British and Foreign Sailors' Society, 303; British and Foreign Bible Society, 305; City Mission, 306; Sunday School Union, 306; Tract Society, 311; Baptist Tract Society, 320; Strict Baptist Convention, 326; London Mission, 383; British and Foreign School Society, 341; Colonial Mission, 346; Peace Society, 355; Home Mission, 355; Anti-slavery Society, 360; Methodist New Connexion, 398; Baptist Union, 463.